

JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2015

VERANDA

HOMES with HEART
THE LITTLE DETAILS THAT MATTER MOST

EBANISTA

ed in weathered brun finish with antiqued leaf detailing, Ebanista's stunning three-ives Cocktail Table features a wrought iron with an antiqued mirror or beveled glass for more information, call 800.570.1087 ebanista.com.

ZOFFANY

Smith, Veranda Editor in Chief, hosted Stories by Zoffany and Friends in y's newly renovated showroom in New y. Veranda celebrated the launch any's online Style Library resources ing tastemakers and designers Robin Elana Frankel, Mark D. Sikes and w Patrick Smyth.

Sikes, Designer; Paul Colley, Zoffany

VIEWPOINT

SILESTONE AT KIPS BAY

The Hearst Design Group—VERANDA, ELLE DECOR, HOUSE BEAUTIFUL—partnered with Silestone at the Kips Bay Decorator Show House where Silestone was featured throughout the exquisite kitchen. Guests celebrated the occasion with Silestone VP of Marketing Lorenzo Marquez and kitchen designer Matthew Quinn while enjoying an exclusive tour of the house.

Patty Dominguez, Cosentino; Mark Williams, Mark Williams Design; Kim Lewis, Kim Lewis Designs; Kerrie Kelly, Kerrie Kelly Design Lab; Lorenzo Marquez, Cosentino; Courtney Cachet, Courtney Cachet Designs; Julia Edelmann, Buckingham Interiors + Design

BERNHARDT: CELEBRATING 125 YEARS

Bernhardt, a brand long associated with iconic furniture design and part of the furniture heritage of America, marks its 125th anniversary this year. Led by the fourth generation of the Bernhardt family, the company makes fashionably designed furniture for the home. For more information, visit bernhardt.com.

PARIS DÉCO OFF 2015: A RAINBOW OF TRENDS

Paris Déco Off is back for its 6th edition from January 22-26. More than 89 prestigious brands will open their showrooms over the five days, from 9:30am-7:30pm. The show will feature cultural events and entertainment, along with free shuttles between the left and right banks. Paris Déco Off is a free event, open to the general public and design professionals. For more information, visit paris-deco-off.com.

